BIG FLEET
OF SEINERS.*Early Crafts for South
Number 75 Sail.*FIRST WILL GO SATURDAY.*List of Fleet, Which Is Largest for Years.

Within a week the first of the seining fleet will start for the southern mackerel grounds and the season of 1902 will be on for better or worse. Many of the fleet have been painting up and the first ones, who will soon now be on the way for warmer waters, will be rapidly followed by the majority of the entire southern fleet.

Last year the early fleet numbered about 50 vessels, and this year's fleet will be even larger, fully 70 vessels making up the flotilla which will be south by April 25.

The new schooner Ralph L. Hall, Capt. Frank H. Hall, is all fitted out and ready to sail, and will probably get away Saturday, being the leader of the fleet.

Below we give a list of 68 vessels which, with probably a few others not yet quite decided on by the vessel owners, will comprise the early southern seining fleet. These additions will probably bring the total up to 75 sail, and it is safe to say that should mackerel be plentiful, the fleet of seiners in southern waters by the first week in May will approach the 100 mark.
